OUTLINES.

William Randolph Hearst, of the New York American, and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, were the chief speakers at a great labor day celebration at the Jamestown Exposition yesterday; thousands of people attended, and, among other things, Mr. Hearst said was that the only aristocracy in this country was one of intellect and industry; he told how the trust question can be handled and declared that powerful criminals should suffer the jail penalty.——Labor Day in San Francisco resulted in an attack on the street cars and employes of the United Railroads shot two men.——The Atlantic Coast Line and other railroads in Alabama on yesterday placed in effect the 2 1-2 cent passenger rate and the reduced freight rates under the State laws.——Bob Miller, a negro, on yesterday shot and probably inflicted a fatal wound upon Town Marshal John Alexander, of Collins, Tatnall county.——A Chesapeake and Ohio train last night was derailed near Kanawha and it is reported that three coaches went into the river with many lives lost.——Emperor Nicholas on Sunday, protected by thousands of troops, for the second time since "Red Sunday," visited St. Petersburg to attend the dedication of a memorial church erected where his grandfather, Alexander II, was assassinated.——In a Labor Day address at Charleston yesterday, Mayor Rhett advised organized labor to be the ally instead of the enemy of capital.——The remains of Richard Mansfield, America's greatest actor, were consigned to the grave yesterday near the actor's Summer home, a short distance from New London, Conn.——At Antwerp, Belgium, yesterday a lockout of dock laborers resulted in a riot and considerable property was destroyed.

Foraker makes a noise like a man who knows he is hollering from the underside.

A New York man beat his wife, took a steamer for Europe, fell overboard 200 miles at sea and was rescued by a life-boat crew. Why didn't the sharks beat the lifeboat to the wife-beater?

Republican politicians insist that the tariff, if revised, must be revised according to schedules suggested by the beneficiaries of the tariff. This is like leaving it to a boy to say how much pie he is willing to have lopped off his piece.

Looking at the passing throng of women at the Jamestown Exposition, Prince Wilhelm says he was struck with the marvelous beauty, loveliness, grace and independence of American women. He surely must have seen a lot of North Carolina girls walking around as if they owned the whole exposition.

Attorney General Bonaparte says his critics condemned him when he was doing nothing and are now condemning him because he is doing something. Bonaparte's critics probably are the fellows who couldn't go off on a vacation and got the knocking habit during the Summer.

The demand by thousands of Republicans who feel the necessity for a revision of the tariff, but can't get it till after two years more of standpatism, shows what a mistake the people made in not electing a Democratic President and Congress in 1904

An old man named Lillibridge died a few days ago at Meriden, Conn. Before he died he told acquantances that he had no kinfolks or relatives and left $150,000 without making a will. If he had lived 48 hours longer he would have seen seven women claiming to be his widows, numerous sons and daughters that he had ignored, and 46 cousins, all setting up claims to the money.

On the pretence that there is a car-shortage and the Pennsylvania coal roads cannot meet the public demand, the Coal Trust has announced another increase in the price of anthracite and bituminons coals for September, and still another for October unless the roads can get more cars by that time. It seems that the Coal Trust has been investigated but not busted. Isn't that about the way with all the alleged busting of trusts?

Says the Chattanooga Times: "There is more or less speculation among newspapers North and South as to why Southern men do not enter the civil service lists. Our understanding is that they do not enter because they have a pretty safe guess that they would not get into the service even if they did apply. Civil service is beautiful and attractive in theory." Which is just about as said. It may be different in the future. Then it will be an improvement over the past.

TO REVOKE LICENSE

Sensational Sequel to Cutting Affray Saturday Night on Postoffice Green.

STARKEY CITED TO APPEAR

Mayor Says He Must Show Cause to Board of Aldermen—Participants Fined $25 and Costs and One Bound Over—Other Cases.

As an aftermath of the cutting affray between Messrs. J. E. Russ and E. B. Campbell on the postoffice green to which they had repaired to settle differences alleged to have been commenced in Starkey's saloon, adjoining, early Saturday night, the two participants in the affray were each fined $25 and costs in the police court yesterday noon, Campbell was held additionally under a bond of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court to answer the charge of an assault with a deadly weapon upon Russ and M. L. Starkey, proprietor of the saloon in which the differences between the two men are alleged to have arisen, was served with written notice to the effect that the Mayor would recommend to the Board of Aldermen at its meeting tonight the revocation of his license for repeated complaints that have been made to him of disorder occurring in and around his place of business. From the judgment of the court in placing a fine of $25 upon him, Mr. Russ took an appeal to the Superior Court and gave cash bond of $25 for his appearance at the term convening Monday, September 23rd, and Campbell paid his fine and costs of $27.35 for the affray and gave bond through Justice John J. Furlong, acting for a friend, to guarantee his appearance at the same term of the Superior Court. Neither of the defendants was represented by counsel and the trial was comparatively short. Mr. Starkey, against whom the Mayor announced in open court he would issue the order for revocation of license, later employed Hon. John D. Bellamy as counsel and will fight the matter of the license before the open meeting of the Aldermen tonight on the ground that he was not responsible for the disturbance and, in fact, ordered both the participants to leave the place upon their quarrel as their appearance on the postoffice green to settle their differences instead of fighting in the saloon will substantiate.

The trial of the case and the peremptory order of the Mayor in regard to the saloon created a distinctive sensation in court and the judment of the chief executive of the city was the talk of the streets during the afternoon. It is now up to the Board of Aldermen to sutain or reject the recommendation of the Mayor. It is expected that the argument of the case will consume some time before the meeting of the Board tonight.

There were some fifteen or twenty defendants before the Mayor yesterday as is usual on Mondays. The following cases were disposed of: Jas. Capot, arrested by Officer J. C. Justice for disorderly conduct, 30 days on the roads; Isabelle Fowler, arrested by Officer Justice for disorderly conduct, 30 days on the farm; Janie Howard, drunk and disorderly, arrested by Officer C. G. Jones, 30 days on the farm; Vance Avant, drunk and down, arrested by Officer J. H. Dew, costs; Rhodes Wayne, drunk and down, arrested by Officer J. H. Hall, costs; William Haywood, disorderly conduct, arrested by Officer Frank George, not guilty and discharged; Rocky McDowell, disorderly conduct, arrested by Officer W. G. Brinkley, William Pigford, disorderly conduct, arrested by Officer J. S. Lane; Robert Hansley, drunk and down, arrested by Officer J. B. Hall; James Hall, colored, arrested by Officer W. C. Moore, C. H. Bun, white, drunk and down, arrested by Officer J. M. Lord, were each fined $5 and costs. John Long, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was sent to the roads for 30 days.

WATER WORKS QUESTION

Hon. John D. Bellamy Will Represent The Company at Meeting of Board of Aldermen Tonight—Both Reports in Hand.

The Clarendon Water Works Company has employed Hon. John D. Bellamy to represent the corporation at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen tonight at which the committee of the Board will make final report on the question of the purchase of the existing water plant to be used as the basis for an enlarged and improved plant to be municipally owned and operated. It will be recalled that at a recent conference of the Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit and Finance, the committee was authorized to offer the water work company $125,000 for the plant as an ultimatum and it was resolved by the two boards that in the event of the refusal of this offer the municipality proceed with the laying of an entirely new system in competition with the private plant. This offer and representation of the feeling of the two boards was formally transmitted to the water company officials, regardless of the report of Colonel J. L. Ludlow, the engineer who made an examination and valuation of the plant in behalf of the city and who placed a valuation on the property higher than the amount tendered by the city, but the water company asked for an appeal to the full Board of Aldermen. This was finally consented to, after the committee has made its report, which will come tonight. The Clarendon Water Works Company will then appeal to the Board for what they consider a nearer approach to a reasonable value for the property.

By some manner or means, the attorney for the water company has come into possession of both the report made on the plant by Colonel Ludlow, for the city, and by Mr. Hazen, the engineer employed by the water company to make an examination of the plant in behalf of the corporation. Both these will be laid before the Board tonight and an appeal will be made for a purchase price from the city, nearer in accord with the report of the two engineers.

It was learned yesterday from a thoroughly reliable source that Colonel Ludlow valued the plant allowing for all depreciation, at $165,000 for physical property while Mr. Hazen valued it for the water company, allowing all depreciation, at $198,000. Then an extra value was allowed for the good will of the business, that is the established water and other rentals of the company which are now between $17,000 and $18,000 per year. The value of this "going business" as it is called was valued by Colonel Ludlow at $16,000 and by Mr. Hazen at $32,000. Then still another value is attached by the engineers for the profits that would accrue to the company for the four and a half years longer that the contract with the city will run. The value of this is placed at $45,000 by Mr. Hazen for the company and at $21,000 by Colonel Ludlow for the city. The aggregate of this physical valuation, good will and accrueing profits for the four and a half years that the contract is still to run, will aggregate $202,000 according to Colonel Ludlow's estimate for the city, and $275,000 according to Mr. Hazen's estimate for the company. These are matters that will be argued to the Aldermen tonightby counsel in an effort to secure what the Clarendon Water Works Company considers a fairer valuation for its property.

It is stated on the other hand that the co-ordinate boards of the city have rejected Colonel Ludlow's report and are willing to pay but $125,000 and no more; if the company is willing to accept that amount, the city will pay it; otherwise it will proceed with the building of another and an entirely new plant. Whether the members of the Board of Aldermen will stand pat on their conference with the Board of Audit and Finance Saturday a week ago or whether they will meet the water company on a compromise basis, remains to be seen.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 1.—Joseph L. Briskey, right fielder for Savannah's team in the South Atlantic League, broke his neck at Tybee Island this afternoon by diving into shallow water. Other bathers saw him as he lay dying on the bottom, but he had announced that he was going to make a long stay under water and they thought nothing of the matter until some minutes had passed. Then they drew him up to find him dead.

Briskey leaves a widow and three-weeks-old baby in Houston, Texas.

MR. LONNIE WILLIAMS DEAD.

Oldest Son of Capt. and Mrs. J. R. Williams Died in Toronto.

Mr. Lonnie Williams, oldest son of Capt. and Mrs. J. R. Williams, of this city, died Sunday at his home in Toronto, Canada, after a brief illness. His father left last night for Baltimore to attend the funeral, which will be conducted in that city today. Mr. Williams married Miss Marjorie Taylor and the family had been living in Toronto for some time. He is survived by his wife and a little son. The bereaved ones have many friends in Wilmington who will tender their sympathies to them in their sorrow.

THE STATE CAPITAL

Labor Day Addresses By Governor Glenn and Treasurer Lacy at Raleigh.

EDUCATORS TO MONTREAT

State Superintendents There This Week—Mrs. Minnie Heck Cowper Dead—Law Class a Distinguished One.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 2.—Governor Glenn and State Treasurer Lacy were the special speakers for the Labor Day celebration here today, the occasion being a big barbecue and brunswick stew served by the labor unions of Raleigh at the State Fair grounds. President J. T. Miller, of the State Federation of Labor, was master of ceremonies.

The Governor paid a tribute to the dignity of labor and dwelt on the neccessity for organizatin and the right use of that organization, features of this right use being pointed out to be the protection of their interests and to create a real interest in the lines of work with which the members of the unions are allied.

State Treasurer Lacy followed the Governor in a ten minutes talk in which he dwelt on the dignity of labor and the importance of the "union." He made a plea for maintaining a high character for the "union" as well as for this high character in the individual members of the unions. Both addresses were received with great enthusiasm.

Banks were closed all day and business houses during the afternoon. The State offices were closed all day in observance of "Labor Day."

B. R. Lacy, Jr., son of State Treasurer Lacy, will sail from Philadelphia September 21st for Oxford, England, to enter the University there. He has been awarded one of the Rhodes scholarships for North Carolina.

Governor Glenn expressed himself this morning as being highly gratified at the victory won for prohibition in Anson county Saturday. He says he felt sure temperance would win but the majority rolled up was surprisingly large. He says the result simply shows the steady march that temperance is making in this State, leading surely and with rapid strides to the time when the liquor evil will be swept from every section and locality of the whole State.

The fact that sixty-one out of the seventy-one law students who undertook the examination before the Supreme Court last Monday for law licenses passed successfully, is declared to be a very high tribute to the thorough work that is being done in the several law schools of the State, especially in view of the fact that the examination sprung on the boys was radically different from the questions propounded in past years, the whole series being pronounced by those competent to judge exceptionally hard.

The Raleigh graded schools will open for the term September 14th with Frank M. Harper superintendent, succeeding E. P. Moses resigned Professor Harper is a native of Lenoir county, a graduate of the University of North Carolina and has been in charge of the Athens, Ga., schools for several years.

Governor Glenn has appointed Professor Charles Lee Roper of the University of North Carolina as chairman of the North Carolina Commission to represent the State at the National Conference on State and local taxation to be held at Columbus, Ohio, November 12th.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner and C. H. Mebane, of the tState Department of Education, have gone to Montreat to attend the sessions of the State Association of County Superintendents of Public Schools to begin there September 4th. Superintendent Joyner says there is every assurance of a very full attendance. The expenses of the county superintendents are paid by the General Education Board and a State law requires attendance unless unavoidably detained.

Everett Spence, a young white man who has been in Wake jail for more than a year awaiting trial for the killing of Walter Chavis, colored, has been released on $500 bond. The bond originally required was $2,500 but an order by Judge Long at the last term of court lowered the amount to $500. This he has given. Spence was in company with a number of friends, intoxicated, and as they were driving by a negro church their vehicle broke down "Preaching" was in progress with a big crowd at the roadside. Words passed between the white men and the negroes and the white men fired into the crowd of negroes, Chavis being killed by a bullet from Spence's revolver.

Mrs. Minnie Heck Cowper, wife of B. G. Cowper, died today after a brief illness. She was 43 years old, and a daughter of the late Colonel J. H. Heck. She was one of Raleigh's most prominent social leaders and is survived by her husband, three children, one an infant; also a mother, five sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Mattie C. Heck, Mrs. W. H. Pace, Miss Fannie Heck, Mrs. J. D. Boushall, Raleigh and Mrs. C. Alphonso Smith, of Chapel Hill; Mr. W. H. Heck, of Charlottesville; Charles M. C. Heck, of Lincoln, Neb., and George H. Heck, of New York. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from Christ's Episcopal church.

Wanted, young man experienced in "Making Ready" and running job presses. One who has had some experience in hand composition preferred. Address The Morning Star, Wilmington, N. C. se 3-3t

NEGRO WOMAN IS KILLED

Emeline Brown, Negress, Accidentally Shot Yesterday Afternoon by Alex. Mallett, Colored—Coroner's Inquest This Morning.

Alex. Mallett, a colored painter about 45 or 50 years of age, gave himself up and was placed in jail early yesterday afternoon, charged with shooting and killing Emeline Brown, a colored woman, living in an alley between Ninth and Tenth, on Grace street. Mallett claims that the shooting was accidental and has furnished the coroner with the names of witnesses to substantiate his story. The coroner has empanelled a jury and will inquire into all the circumstances of the killing this morning at an inquest to be held at 10 o'clock at the office of Justice John J. Furlong, on Princess street.

From the evidence thus far gained by Dr. Bell, the coroner, it appears that Mallett was seated in a back room of his own house projecting with a gun loaded with buckshot. In some way it was accidentally discharged, the load first striking an open door and glancing across the space between the two houses and striking the woman. Her right temple was torn open by the shot and others entered her right ear and just under the member. She died instantly and Mallett at once hurried down to the jail to give himself up to Mr. Capps. The coroner was at once notified and summoned a jury of inquest composed of Messrs. John J. Furlong, W. H. Hancammon, W. G. T. Keen, S. Diel, W. S. Duncan and J. C. McAllister. The jury went up to the house of the Brown woman and viewed the body after which it was turned over to Alex. Davis, the colored undertaker, for burial. The jury will meet again this morning and hear the testimony of a large number of witnesses to the shooting, one of whom is Nick Pearsall, a well known colored mail carrier.

So far as can be learned the Brown woman has no family and her character is none of the best. She has been a frequenter of the police court and has served one or more terms on the county farm. Mallett is a very good colored man but is given to inebriety. He was formerly a porter at the store of William E. Springer & Co.

LIQUOR CURE FOR HENDERSON

Boss Inebriate of the Town is to Take The Treatment.

Of all the thirty-five thousand inhabitants in Wilmington, Henderson Hayes, colored, recognized as the boss booze fighter of the town, has been selected by Chief of Police Williams to test the merits of the Perfected Liquor Cure, of Greensboro. Henderson has the record all right. He has served more time on the county roads for inebriety perhaps than any man of his age in the State. Just now he is on the roads completing a sentence but in a few days he will be out again and Chief Williams knows as well as he knows that the sun will rise and set today, that it will not be 24 hours before Henderson will be back in the lock-up again. And when he does come, he is going to be given a fair shake at the Perfected Cure.

A few days ago, Mr. Lockwood, business manager of the company which puts out the treatment, was in the city and asked Chief Williams to point out to him the worst drunkard in town, the most confirmed devotee at the shrine of Bacchus. The chief did not have to ruminate. Henderson was recognized as the man of the hour. The name of Henderson was submitted and yesterday the cure came by express. Chief Williams signed for the package and put it securely away with a sight.

"We'll have him soon again," he said, "and when he does come we'll give him a dose of it; if Henderson is curable, then the other booze fighters should take heart." And now as soon as the police can corral Henderson he will rise to the dignity of taking a fullfledged liquor cure.

ONLY AN EXHIBITION GAME

Large Crowd of Baseball Enthusiasts Disappointed at Park.

The two league games scheduled to be played between the Monarchs and Y. M. C. A. baseball teams at Hilton Park yesterday afternoon had to be called off on account of the inability of the Y. M. C. A. team to marshal its nine at the time appointed for the first game to begin. An exhibition game was played, however, between the Monarchs and a picked team from the Y. M. C. A., the score having been two to two in fifteen innings. It was stated that a number of the Y. M. C. A. team members were employed at the Atlantic Coast Line general offices and could not get off for the holiday, so the regular games had to be dispensed with in favor of the exhibition contest which was the best to be had.

NATION'S LABOR DAY

Very General Observance Yesterday in Wilmington and at Adjacent Seaside Resorts.

AT WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH

Address by F. W. Bonitz, Esq., and Other Exercises—Parade in the City by Trades Unionists—The Swimming Contest.

The observance of Labor Day in Wilmington and at her seaside resorts yesterday was quite general. There was a suspension of practically all lines of business in the city and at Wrightsville Beach especially there was a very large crowd of trade unionists and their friends for the exercises that had been prepared in honor of the day. The weather was ideal for an outing of the kind, and nothing occurred to mar the perfect success of the day. The Consolidated Company put on an extra schedule of express trains for the occasion and the crowds were handled with comfort and dispatch.

The opening feature of the day in Wilmington was a parade of the trade unions of the city along the principal streets, starting from the City Hall, where the procession was formed under the direction of Chief Marshal Joseph H. Curtis and a corps of aides, representing each department in the line of march. Among the hundreds of people who gathered to witness the pageant and, indeed, among some of the trade unionists themselves, there was harsh criticism of the failure of the managers to draw the color line in the formation of the procession, the colored contingent having formed a very large rear section of the pageant, but it should be stated in deference to the white unions generally that the formal observance of the day by the two races was entirely separate and apart, the negroes having had their celebration at Bryant's pavilion, on the Sound, and the white unions at Wrightsville Beach. The colored unionists were also handled on separate cars, consisting of trailers run from Ninth and Brunswick streets, attached to the freight car of the company. The parade, barring the appearance of the colored element, was highly creditable in every respect. The float of the Electrical Wire Workers was especially creditable to that organization, the men having appeared in white duck uniforms on a contrivance bearing two wire poles with a large arc lamp suspended between, the whole being prettily arranged for the affair.

The terminus of the parade was at the Front and Princess street junction of the Consolidated Company, where the union men and their friends boarded the cars for the beach, each train thereafter during the day and evening carrying down large crowds to enjoy the festivities of the day. Owing to the comparative lateness of the hour in arriving at the beach all the exercises were suspended until afternoon. The first feature of the day was the address by Fred W. Bonitz, Esq., in The Casino. The exercises there were presided over by J. Lem King, Esq., chairman of the committee of arrangements for the day, who introduced the speaker in a few well chosen words.

The address of Mr. Bonitz was along educational lines and was eloquent and pleasing to the numbers who gathered in the pavilion to hear him. The duty of labor to itself and to the employer was brought out in clear distinction and a plea was made for education along all lines. Mr. Bonitz spoke for about thirty minutes and was given frequent and most enthusiastic applause.

Owing to the lateness in starting and the high tides at this season of the year, the bicycle and running races had to be dispensed with, much to the disappointment of the several who had expected to enter the various events. For the bicycle races all the entries were present with their racers and Messrs. Duncan & Hodges had a tandem on the grounds for a special event, but it was simply impossible to get a course on the beach and the effort to have the races in spite of the lateness of the hour had to be abandoned at the last moment.

The swimming race was the only one of the scheduled events that was pulled off. This was in the ocean immediately off Lumina around a boat anchored as a buoy, the course being 700 yards. The winner was Mr. W. E. Watson, with Edgar Mintz second, Deems Capps third and Ed. Branch fourth. Watson came in nearly a hundred yards ahead of all competitors and his was an easy victory being an adept in the surf.

The judges of the contest were Messrs. Lem King, Lang Sellars and W. R. Dozier. The contest was witnessed with much interest by a large crowd who lined the ocean side of Lumina and gathered along the water line of the beach.

The order maintained at the beach during the day was excellent. Chief of Police G. R. Holt and Officers Leon George, M. P. Newton and A. T. Piver were on hand all the time and well upheld the majesty of the law towards all who were disposed to manifest a desire to get rowdy. The last of the Labor Day crowds reached the city about midnight and were enthusiastic over the pleasures of the day and the manner in which everything passed off.

GREAT TOBACCO INDUSTRY.

North Carolina is one of the greatest tobacco producing and manufacturing States in this country. The State is famous for its tobacco and its manufactured products, and anything touching the industry is bound to be read with interest throughout the Tar Heel State. At the close of August the Census Bureau at Washintgon issued a report on the manufacture of tobacco, prepared under the supervision of Mr. William M. Steuart, Chief Statistician for Manufactures. The statistics presented relate to the production of cigars, cigarettes, chewing and smoking tobacco and snuff.

Census statistics of the manufacture of tobacco appeared first at the census of 1810. The classifications were "American segars," Spanish segars," and "tobacco and snuff." No totals were presented for the entire country, but the returns for Pennsylvania gave a total of 3,898,999 Spanish segars, valued at $26,550; 29,061,000 American segars, valued at $44,253; and 2,186,757 pounds of tobacco and snuff, having a value of $410,910. For Virginia were returned 2,726,713 pounds of tobacco and snuff, of a value of $469,000. At the census of 1840, out of 30 States and Territories the manufacture of tobacco was reported for 28, the total value of products as shown in the recapitulation being $5,319,568, of which Virginia reported $2,406,671.

According to figures derived from the reports of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the number of cigars manufactured in the calendar year 1904 was 7,376,669,742 and the number of cigarettes 3,433,993,422. As compared with the year 1900 this shows an increase of 19.4 per cent. in the manufacture of cigars, and of 5.4 per cent. in the manufacture of cigarettes. The Census bulletin calls attention to the fact that the number of cigars and cigarettes consumed increased 27.5 per cent. between 1900 and 1905; and that between 1869 and 1905 the consumption of cigars increased nearly sevenfold, while the population in the same period increased only a little over two-fold.

The number of wage earners employed in 1905 in this industry was 159,408; this represents the average number employed during the year, and includes 85,691 men, 66,301 women, and 7,416 children under 16 years of age. The proportion of women comprised in the total has greatly increased in recent years. In 1880 only 23.1 per cent. of the total number of wage earners in this industry were women. This proportion increased to 29.8 per cent. in 1890, 37.2 per cent. in 1900, and 41.6 per cent. in 1905.

Speaking of the enormous growth of the tobacco industry the Boston Transcript says:

"Perhaps if King James I were to return to earth he might issue a new and enlarged edition of his 'counterblast' against tobacco, but administrations of today have many economic reasons for treating 'the Virginia weed' with respect. Not only does it contribute largely to the revenue of many lands, but so much capital is invested in the industry that it is strongly buttressed commercially against the attacks of the anti-tobacconists."

SCIENCE OF GRADING COTTON.

The Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union was organized some time ago to educate farmers in the methods of grading cotton and to educate them in other things connected with the cotton industry. The Union does not seem to flourish over here on the Atlantic, but it has been doing business in Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama and perhaps other Southern States.

The Society has been holding a Summer school at Auburn, Ala., and the Atlanta Journal tells us that the school has been particularly successful, and that the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union "is living up to all that the name implies by paying special attention to the education of students along lines which hitherto have been deplorably neglected." Speaking of the Summer School at Auburn, the Journal says:

"The most notable feature of it was the plan of educating students in the science of grading cotton nad keeping warehouse books. It is remarkable in the highest degree that the science of grading cotton should have been neglected as a study in the South so long. At Auburn the students were taught this and warehouse bookkeeping with the special end in view of discharging those functions in the Farmers' Union warehouse which are being erected throughout the Southern States. This is but an additional confirmation of the fact that the Farmers' Union is proceeding systematically and intelligently in its education and co-operation.

"But aside from the special positions to which these students will devote themselves, the science of grading cotton is one which should be taught in every agricultural school in the South. It undoubtedly should be made a special feature of the curriculum in the district agricultural schools to be established throughout the State.

"It cannot be denied that the average farmer is painfully ignorant of the principles of grading cotton. Whether or not the buyer and the long string of middle men ever take advantage of his ignorance in this respect is comparatively of no importance. Every practical farmer should at least be instructed in the art of determining the exact grade and consequent value of his cotton, and this can best be done by the instruction and the actual experience afforded in such schools as that conducted at Auburn by the Farmers' Union during the past Summer.

"The Farmers' Union is doing a great many things to educate the farmers of the South and to place them in a position of independence and among those things this Summer school system is one of the most valuable. The idea should be encouraged and extended wherever possible, and the education of the farmer in the science of grading cotton might well be taken up by every agricultural school in the South, under whatever auspices it may be conducted."

It would be a good idea for every young man in the South to learn all about cotton. They should not only know how to grade cotton, but they should know something of the history of the cotton plant, the methods of cultivation, the nature, growth and extent of the cotton manufacturing industry, and cotton lore in general. It is plain that cotton production, cotton selling and manufacturing is more than ever to be the one great source of the South's future wealth.

—Mr. Rockefeller talks in that injured way as if he were applying to himself the benediction pronounced upon those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake.—Atlanta Journal.

—Thaw's imprisonment, it is asserted, has made a new man of him. Still, the law will insist that the original Thaw be put on trial again.—Washington Post.

—The Philadelphia Ledger refuses to regard Senator Tillman as anything other than "an entertaining freak." The Senator doesn't care three straws, meantime, so long as he can get $25,000 a year out of being an "entertaining freak."—Savannah News.

—State rights be hanged so long as the people's interests are protected and conserved! That is the right kind of policy to follow, and we are glad indeed that President Roosevelt throws Democratic notions to the winds and proceeds along such lines as is best for all the people. Judge Parker's speech before the American Bar Association amounted to about as much as a schoolboy's oration.—Schenectady Union (Rep.)

—We do not know that either North Carolina, Georgia or Alabama would profit any by forcing with their inimical laws, the Southern Railroad into a receivership. The melancholy feature of the situation is that the authorities of neither of the States mentioned based their laws or their recommendations upon any direct knowledge or reliable data as to whether the road could comply without serious if not fatal losses. The evidence adduced in the recent hearing in New York is conclusive that as at present operated the volume of business handled in these States does not justify the drastic reduction of rates attempted.—Chattanooga Times.

—Investigations are in progress in the Bureau of Chemistry at Washington with reference to the current process of whitening flour by the use of nitric acid fumes, in order to test, as far as possible, the effect of such bleaching on the health of consumers. The preliminary inquiries, it is stated, have shown that the effect of the fumes is to change the natural oil of the grain into a chemical substance which can not be classed as a food. They also produce important changes in the gultinous content of the flour, giving it a less digestible quality. The worst feature of the whitening process is that it renders possible adulterations and tends to conceal inferiority, inasmuch as consumers are habitually guided to some extent in their choice of flour by the color of the product. This makes it feasible to incorporate cheaper flours, which have been artificially whitened.—Oswego Palladium (Dem.)

Why Is Sugar Sweet.

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth, but do dissolve readily in the acids of the stomach. Is just as good for Grown People as for Children. The First and Original Tasteless Chill Tonic. The Standard for 30 years. 50 cents.

GIVING OUT.

The Struggle Discourages Many a Citizen of Wilmington.

Around all day with an aching back;
Can't rest at night;
Enough to make any one "give out."
Doan's Kidney Pills will give renewed life.
They will cure the backache;
Cure every kidney ill.
Here is Wilmington proof that this is so:

E. Poezolt, merchant tailor of Eight South Front street, residing at 315 North Sixth street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and in her case they proved to be an effective remedy. She suffered with her ankles and could scarcely get down stairs in the morning. We thought it was rheumatism, and her ankles would be all pulled up every morning, so she could hardly hobble around. Since obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at R. R. Bellamy's drug store and taking them she seems like another person. She is better in the morning, the swelling left her ankles and from the great relief she obtained we are only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

LIEUTENANT BLUE NOW IN RALEIGH

There to Confer About Selection of Silver Service for New Cruiser North Carolina—Committee Will Meet Today.

(Raleigh News and Observer, Sept. 1.)

Lieutenant-Commander Victor Blue, so pleasantly remembered in Raleigh through his participation in May in the ceremonies connected with the unveiling of the Bagley statue when he delivered one of the addresses, will arrive in Raleigh this afternoon in the company of his brother, Dr. Rupert Blue, U. S. A., to meet with the committee appointed by the last legislature to select a silver service to be presented by the State to the new battleship, "North Carolina," now receiving her finishing touches at the Newport News Navy Yard.

During his stay in the city Mr. Blue and his brother will be the guests of Colonel Charles E. Johnston, on Hillsboro street.

The meeting of the Legislative committee to select the silver service is to be held in Raleigh at half past nine on Tuesday morning, and it is upon its invitation to attend and assist in the selection of the service that Mr. Blue and his brother came to the city. The committee of the Legislature is composed of Lieutenant Governor F. D. Winston, Speaker E. J. Justice, Senator J. C. Drewry, Representative Chas. U. Harris and G. F. Hankins. A majority, if not all of the committee, will be here on Tuesday.

The "North Carolina," a modern battleship, and one of the finest products of the new navy, was launched last Fall and is to go into commission at an early date. Her executive officer is to be Lieutenant Commander Blue, both by his desire and in accordance with the earnest wish of the people of the State who hold him in honor and who desired particularly that the ship that bore the name of the State should have with her in the most important capacity possible to his rank the naval officer of whom the State is particularly proud. The selection of Lieutenant Commander Blue as executive officer was therefore a most happy one and gave general satisfaction. As indicative of the interest he feels in the new ship and of his love for his State is the fact of his recent statement at the Jamestown Exposition that, so far as was possible, he would see that the crew of the battleship was made up of North Carolina men.

The splendid service of Lieutenant Blue in the Spanish war is, of course, well remembered in North Carolina and in Raleigh. Possibly his was the most brilliant individual service rendered in either branch during the progress of hostilities. He twice penetrated the lines of the enemy and approached a point almost directly over the fortifications at Santiago and thereby furnished most valuable information at the gravest personal risk, and, in addition, turned about when chased by a Spanish gun-boat and captured the pursuer. He was specially honored by the Department and given direct promotion as the result of his personal prowess.

During his recent visit to Raleigh Mr. Blue showed that he was a thorough North Carolinian; that he was in touch with the people of his State; could make a speech without being an orator, and that, in modesty, frankness and good-fellowship he was the best type of the Naval officer. He and his charming wife made scores of friends during their short stay and his return will be learned with pleasure by the entire city.

Dr. Rupert Blue, although not so well known, has made his mark as a surgeon in the Army and is now filling the important post of officer in charge of sanitation at the Jamestown Exposition. He will be warmly greeted in Raleigh, where the Blues are welcomed as natives of the State, who are doing North Carolina honor.

RULES GOVERNING THE CONTEST. READ THEM CAREFULLY:

A.—All subscriptions must be received at the regular published rate. No discounts or commissions whatever will be allowed.

B.—No subscriptions will be received for a less time than three months.

C.—Every subscription sent in under this offer must be a bone-fide new subscription to The Morning Star. No others will be received, and a careful investigation will be made to determine whether or not the name sent in is a new subscriber.

D.—Cash must accompany all orders.

E.—All that is necessary to win any of the trips enumerated above is that the subscriptions sent in shall aggregate the amounts named. Orders need not be for yearly subscriptions only. In securing subscriptions the following ratio may be observed: Two six-months' subscriptions are equivalent to one yearly subscription; four three months' subscriptions are equivalent to one yearly subscription.

F.—The names of new subscribers, and the amounts collected, should be sent in as soon as obtained. Receipts will be forwarded to the subscribers at once, and the amount placed to the credit of the contestant.

G.—This exceptional offer will remain open to all until September 1, 1907. If you get to work at once there is time a plenty for you to secure one of the best trips. You may visit the Exposition any time you please.

—Messrs. Frank Stafford, Tom Keen, Mike Glenn, Ben Morill and W. T. Farriss leave this morning for New York and other Northern cities where they will spend their vacation, returning via the Jamestown Exposition where they will stop for a day or two.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Delemar, former residents who are pleasantly remembered in Wilmington, are here on a brief visit from Raleigh. Mr. Delmar is now connected with the Internal Revenue Collector's office in Raleigh and is combining business and pleasure on his visit to the city.

—Messrs. R. J. Stokley, Ed. Boushee, George Boylan, Lee Holmes, George Penny and Dr. J. H. Dreher are among the members of the Wilmington Gun Club who left Sunday and yesterday for Richmond to attend the tournament being held there under the auspices of the Deep Run Hunt Club. They expect to return Wednesday evening.

MR. THOS. B. HARRISS DEAD.

Former Wilmingtonian Passed Away in Savannah—Funeral Here.

Many friends in this city learned with sorrow yesterday of the death of Mr. Thos. B. Harriss, a former highly esteemed Wilmingtonian, and a son of the late Dr. W. W. Harriss, which occurred at an early hour Sunday morning at his home in Savannah, Ga., where he had a responsible position with the Grainger-Lewis Lumber Company. Mr. Harriss had been ill only a short time and few of his friends knew that he was at all unwell. The news of his death was received here as a great shock to many by whom he was most favorably known.

Mr. Harriss was born and reared to young manhood in Wilmington and was 52 years of age at the time of his death. He had been a resident of Savannah for many years, but had often visited here, where he renewed acquaintances and cemented the ties of friendship with many old acquaintances of his younger manhood. He married a daughter of the late Dr. Anderson, of Wilmington, and his wife with two sons survive him. The sons are Messrs. Edwin and James Harriss, who with Mrs. Harriss and a friend of the family, Mr. Owen Perry, accompanied the remains to Wilmington arriving yesterday afternoon. There are also surviving three brothers and one sister, viz: Mr. George N. Harriss, of Wilmington; Mr. W. W. Harriss, of Jacksonville, Fla.; John D. Harriss, of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. W. L. Harlow, of this city. The funeral party, consisting of those named and Mr. Frank Harriss, a nephew of the deceased, who joined the family at Charleston, and Mrs. Harlow, who came on the same train from Saluda, N. C., where she had spent a part of the Summer, were met at the station by a large number of friends and relatives and the casket was tenderly borne to the residence of Mrs. Harlow, on Chestnut street, where many friends called to extend their sympathies to the bereaved ones.

The funeral was conducted at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon from St. James' Church, the Rev. James Carmichael, D. D., assisted by Rev. Thos. P. Noe, of the Church of the Good Shepherd, officiating. The interment was in the family plat in Oakdale Cemetery, the pallbearers having been Messrs. R. N. Sweet, R. C. Cantwell, W. B. McKoy, Jos. H. Watters, W. A. Williams and Thos. McIlhenny.

NEGRO SHOOTS OFFICER.

Another Case in Georgia Town—May Be Fatal.

Augusta, Ga., Sept. 2.—A Savannah special says:

John Alexander, marshal of Collins, Tatnall county, was brought to Savannah today for treatment of a gunshot wound that may prove fatal. He was shot Saturday night by Bob Miller, a negro, while trying to effect an arrest. Miller was fired on, the bullet piercing his tongue. He has been captured.

Mrs. E. Peschau, Miss Alice Reston Smith, Mrs. T. C. James, and Mr. J. Marion James. At Black Mountain: Mrs. H. C. Prince, Miss Sue Brent Prince, Mr. Ed. Prince, Miss Margaret Bridgers, and Miss Lucy Bridgers. At Toxaway: Mrs. Geo. B. Elliott and children. At Morganton: Mrs. Frank H. Russell.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Cape Fear Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., has organized a special degree team, which is called to meet tonight for practice in contemplation of the conferring of the initiatory degree upon a number of candidates for membership tonight week. All members of the team are asked to be present.

—The convocation of the Church of the Holy Covenant, colored, is being held this week in a new house of worship which the denomination has recently completed at northeast corner of Tenth and Dawson streets. A number of colored people of prominence from all over the State are here to attend the convocation.

—Contributions to the Catherine Kennedy Home for August: A friend, cantaloupes; Mrs. M. E. Bridgers, coffee; Mrs. James Montgomery, watermelons; Mrs. H. O. Craig, roasting pan; Shadeland Dairy, milk; Mrs. Wilder, tomatoes and hominy; Mr. J. A. Montgomery, watermelons; Mrs. Jas. Justley, $4; Mrs. S. Solomon, books; Mrs. B. Solomon, books; Mr. J. Hicks Bunting, drugs; Mr. R. R. Bellamy, drugs; Mr. J. A. Springer, ice; Mrs. Roger Moore.

TO OPEN NEW CAFES.

One in Garrell Building, Another in Former S. A. L. Office.

Of restaurants and cafes there seems to be no end in Wilmington—a pretty fair indication of the growth of the city and the willingness of people to part with their coin if they can get what they want. It is announced that on or about September 17th, Mr. J. A. Boyett, with the Seashore Hotel two years ago as steward and later for a short time manager of The Purcell in this city, will open a first-class cafe in the corner store in the Garrell Building, Second and Princess streets. Mr. Boyett proposes to cater to the trade of both ladies and gentlemen and announces that he will furnish the new cafe in first-class style, and will conduct it along up-to-date lines. It is also announced that during this month a first-class lunch counter will be opened in the store on Princess street formerly occupied by the Seaboard Air Line as an up-town ticket office. The latest fixtures in the lunch-counter line will be put in and the place will be conducted in thoroughly first-class manner by parties who are not yet ready to make definite announcement of the opening and the proprietorship.

CANOE RACE YESTERDAY

Interesting Labor Day Event on Wrightsville Sound—Prizes.

Among the interested ones a feature of the Labor Day exercises at Wrightsville yesterday was a canoe race in the Sound for which there were four entries, the course being from Lumina to the Carolina Yacht Club pier, a distance of half a mile. The race was won by the canoe manned by Messrs. George Davis and H. M. Chase while the second prize went to the craft of Messrs. Raymond Hunt and Will Parsley. The boat rowed by Messrs. Stokley came in third while the crew composed of Messrs. A. B. Skelding, and H. Rapalje was fourth. Mr. M. F. H. Gouverneur was the judge of the finish; Mr. H. Woolcott was the official starter and Mr. A. S. Root timekeeper. The trophy was a copper loving cup which was presented with ceremony to Messrs. Chase and Davis. The race was very close, the four boats being almost together at the finish. The time of the winners was seven minutes and eleven seconds for the half mile.

ROBBED HOME OF JEWELRY.

Valuables Amounting to $125 Stolen From Fourth Street Residence.

The police have been asked to look out and see if they can obtain any clue to a sneak thief, who on Saturday entered the residence of Mrs. Lillian M. Love, 120 North Fourth street, and stole from a bureau in one of the rooms of the home a jewel case containing about $125, worth of jewelry, the property of Miss Jeannette Love. The robbery was committed in broad open daylight and is supposed to have been the work of two colored boys from the country, who appeared at the residence during the day and pretended that they wanted work. Thus far there has been no clue to the thief, the theft having been kept quiet a few days with the hope that a part of the jewelry at least might be recovered. The stolen jewels consist of two diamond rings, Tiffany setting; gold chain and pendant, bracelet, a pearl crescent pin and a small gold pin. None of the property has been located by the police.

Mr. and Mrs. Kneissel Leave.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Kneissel will leave this morning for Mr. Kniessel's former home at Toledo, Ohio, where they will spend the Winter months Mr. Kneissel having closed an engagement to furnish music for Le Fevere's Academy, opening the season Sept. 9th, in that city. Mr. Kneissel closed his contract with the Consolidated Company for the music at Lumina on September 1st, but will return to Wilmington next Summer, having just signed a contract with the company for a concert band of 20 pieces at Lumina next season. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kneissel will regret to lose them even temporarily as residents and will await with pleasure their return next season.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison, too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, druggist. 50c.

CONTINUATION SALE

Era of Bargains to Continue Two Weeks Longer at Solky's.

Those who attended are kind enough to say that the two weeks sale just concluded Saturday night at the store of J. M. Solky & Co., in the Masonic Temple, was the greatest offering of merchandise ever made in Wilmington by any firm. While the sale lasted there was a crowd at the counters constantly and a large force of salespeople had to be employed to wait on the trade. It will be welcome news to many to know that the sale will be continued for two weeks longer. This is to give all who did not have an opportunity of taking advantage of the first sale to do so now. Coming as the original sale did near the close of the month, it was impossible for many salaried people to take advantage of the bargains as they might be able to do after the first of the month and it was this consideration which induced Mr. Solky to continue the era of bargains for two weeks longer. The store still has the force of extra salespeople and there are many bargains which will appeal to all. A visit to the store is well worth while.

MRS LILLIE M. REGISTER DEAD

Passed Away Yesterday Morning at Family Home on Second Street.

Friends will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Lillie M. Register, wife of Mr. Richard Register and daughter of Mrs. Annie K. Litgen, which occurred yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Litgen, No. 18 1-2 North Second street. Mrs. Register had been in poor health some time and while her death was not unexpected, it came as a sad blow to the family and friends. She was in the 38th year of her age and is survived by her husband, mother and five children, Willie, Charlie, Gibson, Harrison and Lillian Register, all young. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

The funeral will be conducted from the residence at 4 o'clock this afternoon by Rev. C. W. Kegley, assisted by Rev. J. S. Crowley, and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

SHOOTING ON KIDDER'S HILL.

Negro Engages in Pistol Practice at Expense of Man and Woman.

Lewis Guy, colored, was arrested by Officer I. F. Huggins about 6 o'clock yesterday evening, charged with engaging in pistol practice at another negro on Kidder's Hill. Guy, while firing at the man, also struck a woman, but continued his firing long enough to get his man who was sent to the hospital with a bad pistol wound in his thigh. Guy will be held in the police station until his victim is able to appear against him in the police court. The woman, it is stated, was not seriously hurt.

On the Turf Labor Day.

The trotting and running races at the Old Fair Grounds track yesterday afternoon attracted quite a large crowd in spite of the fact that it was not a regular event nor were there any stated entries for the contest. A horse driven by Mr. H. T. F. Wrede was the winner of the first event and "Farewell" was an easy winner over two other entries in the second event. "Endymion" was the winner of the running race with a number of entries in the meet.

Why Graham Crackers are Healthful.

Graham flour is the whole kernel of the wheat, ground without bolting, or, in other words, without being sifted through bolting cloths.

Being the whole of the wheat, it therefore contains all the nutriment of the wheat, and has the additional virtue of increasing the activity of digestion.

Graham Crackers are the most delicious food made from this flour, and are especially desirable for persons of sedentary habits or occupation, because their stimulating effect materially helps the digestion.

The use of Graham Crackers is also a convenient way of furnishing variety to the diet, which alone helps greatly toward good appetite and digestion.

The Graham Crackers baked by the National Biscuit Company are different in flavor and better than any of the old-fashioned kinds. They are made scientifically by perfected processes, which preserves the natural sweetness and goodness of the wheat, and gives them a delicious nutty flavor entirely lacking in the Graham Crackers made in the old crude way. They are packed by the National Biscuit Company in moisture and dust proof packages, and are consequently not only crisp, fresh and clean, but have lost none of their original flavor.

A package within easy reach of the children and a package on the table at every meal will do much toward keeping the family in good health and spirits. To get them, simply ask anywhere for a package of Red Label Graham Crackers made by the National Biscuit Company.

Lost and Found.

Lost, between 9:30 P. M., yesterday and noon today, a bilious attack, with nausea and sick headache. This loss was occasioned by finding at R. R. Bellamy's drug store a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills, the guaranteed cure for biliousness, malaria and jaundice. 25c.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

EASTERN CAROLINA CARRIERS

Profitable Meeting in This City Yesterday—State Gathering.

The Eastern North Carolina Rural Letter Carriers' Association held a most interesting and profitable meeting in this city yesterday, a large number of the carriers having been present and several topics having been treated by the speakers in attendance. The sessions were held in the Elks' Temple on North Front street, among the members present being President R. F. Gore, of Wilmington, presiding; Vice President W. T. Robbins, Secretary and Treasurer D. J. Ward and Messrs. L. B. Carr, O. H. Rivenbark, J. H. Evans, Wallace; J. H. Fussell, S. L. Bradshaw, Rose Hill; G. W. Cooper, J. Howard Faison, Faison; C. F. Matthews, Watha; F. B. Orr, M. H. Pridgen, C. N. Pridgen, Currie; J. W. Russ, Wilmington; Ed D. Pearsall, Rocky Point, and Samuel T. Meares, Clarkton.

The meeting opened with prayer by the chaplain, Mr. J. H. Fussell, and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The expenses of Delegate D. J. Ward to the State convention at Durham was made up and tendered to him. A resolution looking to the declaration of the 25th of December as a holiday in the service was passed and referred to the State convention.

The report of Mr. D. J. Ward, of Winnabow, delegate to the State Convention at Durham, was read and adopted. The next meeting of the State convention will be held in Wilmington and a committee was appointed to look after the arrangements for this affair. The committee is composed of Messrs. R. F. Gore, chairman; J. W. Russ, W. T. Robbins, D. J. Ward and E. D. Pearsall. The date of next meeting is May 30th 1908.

A resolution of thanks was tendered to the Elks for the use of their Temple for the meeting yesterday; also a resolution of thanks to the Wilmington papers for courtesies shown.

The meeting yesterday was by far the largest and most enthusiastic the Association has yet held.

E. WARREN & SON.

Bakery of Popular Establishment Removed to Front and Market.

Messrs. E. Warren & Son have removed their bakery from No. 5 North Front street to the scoend floor of the building now occupied by them as a candy, fruit and ice cream establishment at southwest corner of Front and Market streets. The firm has recently installed a Middleby Tile Oven, the only one of its kind in the State. It has a capacity of 1,500 loaves of first-class bread at each heat. A heat requires about four hours and the oven is kept running night and day in the manufacture of cakes and breadstuffs of all kinds. The bakery is splendidly lighted and well ventilated, all making for absolute sanitation. Being on the second floor, pure air is wafted through the baking rooms through numbers of large windows. The firm caters especially to the out-of-town business and will, of course, continue the ice cream, fruit and candy business on the other floors of the large and handsome building.

Messrs. E. Warren & Son have just received from the Department of Agriculture at Washington a pure food serial number, dated August 26th, which guarantees all the articles manufactured in the establishment to be absolutely pure. The firm has always made the best and purest, but it is desired to call especial attention to this additional United States guarantee. With the best product obtainable, prompt and efficient delivery service and courteous treatment to all, the business of E. Warren & Son, all now under one roof, promises to still greater expand and magnify.

Richard Linthicum Floated.

The schooner previously reported ashore on Cape Lookout shoals proved to be the Richard Linthicum, 191 tons, Capt. Brannock, from Georgetown, S. C., to New York with cargo of lumber. She floated without assistance Sunday morning about 10 o'clock after her deck load had been jettisoned. The schooner then proceeded for harbor inside the hook of the cape, where a survey will probably be held. Particulars of the grounding were brought to the city yesterday by the tug Blanche, which proceeded to her assistance Saturday morning but arrived too late. The Revenue Cutter also proceeded to the assistance of the vessel Sunday morning, but she too was late and probably returned to Southport last night.

Marie Menzell Floated.

The German steamer Marie Menzell, Capt. Menzell, which went ashore Friday afternoon at Reeve's Point, while proceeding up to this port with cargo of fertilizer constituents, was floated at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by the tugs Sea King, Blanche and steamer Atlantic, after which the ship proceeded up to Wilmington. The vessel was not floated until between 400 and 500 tons of her cargo had been lightered by the Sea King and barge. The vessel came off without damage.

R. H. LYON, ESQ., DEAD.

Prominent Lawyer of Elizabethtown and County Attorney of Bladen.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Elizabethtown, N. C., Sept. 2.—R. H. Lyon, a prominent lawyer and county attorney, died here today after a short illness. He was a young man of ability and was held in the highest esteem. He was married only five months ago to Miss Simmons, of Parkersburg, Bladen county.

Fire This Morning.

The alarm of fire from box 22, Second and Market streets, shortly after 2 o'clock this morning, was on account of a small blaze on the third floor of the residence of Mrs. M. P. Christ, 19 South Second street. An alarm was first sent in by telephone and later by bell. The greatest damage was by water and is fully insured with the agency of Col. J. VanB. Metts. The cause of the fire is unknown and may have occurred from a lamp left burning or by rats and matches.

BELGIAN STRIKERS VIOLENT

Attacked English Strikebreakers and Destroyed Valuable Property.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Antwerp, September 2.—The lockout of the dock laborers today caused the porters and others to strike in sympathy and resort to violence. The rioters broke into the grain storehouses, broke up the tools, carried off the wagons and showered stones on the English strike breakers on the steamers, forcing them to quit work, routed other strike breakers, threw a steam crane overboard and wrecked a lot of machinery. The rioters boarded the British steamer Agenoria, destroyed her freighting implements and seriously injured one of her engineers. They also took possession of the British steamer Sydney.

The violence of the dock laborers and their sympathizers so terrified the men at work on board a number of vessels that they fled to the shore.

The disturbances continued throughout the evening. There was several sharp tussles between strikers and workmen who were returning to their lodgings under police escort in which revolvers were used freely. No one was hit.

NEGROES IN A ROW.

Report From Their Labor Day Celebration on Sound Yesterday.

A telephone message reached the City Hall late yesterday afternoon stating that there was a free-for-all fight in progress at Bryant's pavilion on the Sound where the negroes were engaged in their Labor Day celebration yesterday. The request was made that the whole police force be sent down to quell the disturbance, but of course the reported disorder was out of the jurisdiction of the city police and the parties were referred to the sheriff. It is reported that Sheriff Cowan sent several officers across the country to the pavilion, but further particulars of the disturbance could not be learned. It is believed, however, that there were no fatalities, and that the reports of the disturbance were greatly magnified.

ALABAMA'S RATE LAWS.

Railroads Put Them Into Effect on Passengers and Freights.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 2.—The Mobile and Ohio, the Seaboard Air Line, the Southern, the Frisco System, the Chattanooga Southern, Alabama Great Southern and the Atlanta, Birmingham, and the Atlantic Coast Line put the two and a half cent passenger rate and the commodity rates into effect in Alabama today.

MILLIONS FOR CHEWING GUM.

Mere Pittance for Missions, Says Bishop James S. Johnston.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Stpt. 1.—The Right Rev. James S. Johnston, Episcopal bishop of western Texas, delivered a stirring address on the subject of "Foreign and Domestic Missions," at the service attended by President Roosevelt and his family here today. The bishop and Rev. H. H. Washburn, pastor of Christ Episcopal Church, and Mrs. Washburn accepted an invitation to lunch at Sagamore Hill, after the services.

In comparing what he regarded as the pittance of $5,000,000 a year, which was all the Church could collect for mission work, Bishop Johnston put the millions spent annually on the United States navy in the same column with the $60,000,000 which he said was spent annually for chewing gum and the many times greater amount for tobacco and liquor. The support of the navy, however, he justified later as making for peace.

Bishop Johnston has recently visited the Far East and declared the American government had a difficult problem to solve in the Philippines. In Japan, he said, there was a decidedly greater demand for religious literature than could be supplied.

Will Study Medicine.

Mr. John B. LeGwin, a popular young Wilmington pharmacist, has resigned his position at Bellamy's drug store, and will leave today for the University of North Carolina to begin the study of medicine. Mr. LeGwin stood highest in his class before the State Board of Pharmacy a few years ago and his friends know that he will make a great success of his chosen profession in medicine.

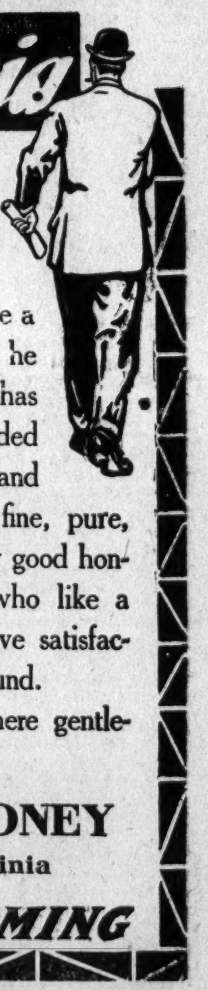
BLENDED RYE



When a man goes for a drink of Belle of Virginia Whiskey he hurries because he knows he will have a fine drink, and when he comes away he smiles and smacks his lips because he has had it. Belle of Virginia is a blended whiskey—a rye whiskey carefully and scientifically blended from fine, pure, old whiskies. It's a really good honest article and to those who like a blended whiskey it will give satisfaction clear down to the ground.

Sold at the places where gentlemen go to get a drink.

GOING AND COMING

Pure Whisky Has Medicinal Value

Science establishes the fact, that whiskey is a valuable medicine and when used in moderation its effect on the human system is wholesome and beneficial. The discovery of medicinal properties in whiskey is not new, they were recognized and used to advantage by the scientists of the East long before the course of civilization turned westward.

The Southern Distilling Company, was established on the idea that there was ample room for a large whiskey house that would sell pure whiskies for medicinal use and that is the trade they have today.

We have many proofs which we can offer which sustain our claims which we will gladly furnish upon request.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Asheville, August 31: The Board of Aldermen has called the special prohibition election for October 8th. The temperance people have started to work in earnest to rid the city of open saloons.

—Jackson County Journal: The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Garrett, formerly of Sylvia, now of Whittier, will regret to learn of the accident which happened to their little son Robert. He fell from a wagon and broke his arm and one bone in one of his feet. The wagon load weighed 2,000 pounds. The wheel run over his body. No doubt he would have been killed, but for the fact that he fell in a mud hole.

Salisbury, August 31: Ed Ashby was today convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary for killing his brother-in-law, Daniel Overcash, at China Grove, June 16th. The trial was a speedy one and the jury reached a verdict on the second ballot. Judge Justice and Solicitor Hammer are on record that they will not endorse an appeal for pardon. Although but 21 years old, Ashby shot and killed his own father two years ago and also slew a negro a year later, giving him a record of three murders, escaping conviction in two cases.

—Charlotte, August 31: Three more barns were last night added to the list of those destroyed by fire of supposed incendiary origin during the present year. The three fires, like several others this year, occurred almost at the same hour. One of the barns was west of Charlotte, belonging to Alexander Beatty, lost $400, and two east of the city, one belonging to T. J. Orr, loss $600; the other the property of S. B. Smith, loss $500. The entire population of the county is wrought up over the renewal of the barn burning mania, which is believed to be the work of an organized band of negroes.

—Asheville, August 31: Special Agent Frank M. Jordan of the Southern Railway Company, has resigned his position with the Southern to accept the place of plain clothes man or detective in Asheville. The authorities here have determined to break up the commission of crime and recently created the office of city detective. Mr. Jordan will go to work for the city tomorrow. Another robbery was added to the long list last night when two houses were entered. At one place $20 was stolen and at another the burglar was reaching under a pillow where a woman slept, when she was awakened and screamed. The man fled.

—Durham, August 31: This afternoon sentence of death was passed on Major Guthrie, the negro who was yesterday convicted of killing his wife Lizzie Guthrie. The sentence is that he shall be hanged October 11, but the counsel for the negro gave notice of appeal to the Supreme court and this will act as a stay of execution and if the opinion of the lower court is affirmed it will be up to the Governor to rename the day on which this negro shall die. While the negro was convicted on circumstantial evidence, still there is not a person who heard the trial or know the facts who is not thoroughly convinced that he brutally murdered his wife in the dead hour of the night on May 5. It was as complete a case of circumstances thrown about the neck of this doomed negro as was ever heard in this county.

—Winston-Salem, August 31: The stamp sales for tobacco at the revenue office here during August amounted to $175,000 this being an increase of about $50,000 over the month of August, 1906. Local tobacco manufactorers shipped about 3,000,000 pounds this month. The stamp clerk has been notified that hereafter no stamps for spirits will be sold at this office. This action is taken because of the small demand for such stamps in this section. There are a few brandy distilleries in Forsyth and adjoining counties and Statesville is the nearest point at which they can get stamps. The annual meeting of the tobacco board of trade will be held Monday afternoon when the president's report will be submitted for the ensuing years, committees named and other business transacted. The president's report will show that 15,477,245 pounds of leaf tobacco was sold on the Winston-Salem market from September 1, 1906 to September 1, 1907. It brought $1,280,107, an average of 8 1-3 cents.

CALLING IN PARIS.

The Concierge Is a Peculiar Institution In Several Ways.

You leave your card at the door of the person to whom you desire to present yourself, and there it is taken in charge by that peculiarly French functionary, the concierge, says Professor Barrett Wendell in Scribner's. At least in Paris, the greater part of French people live in large houses containing a number of apartments with a common entrance and staircase. Close to the entrance door, on the level of the street, are some stuffy little rooms inhabited by the concierge, or porter, with his family. Their duty, among other things, is to keep strict watch on whoever goes in or out, and at least one of them, often the porter's wife or half grown daughter, is always at hand.

The chief peculiarity of their temperament seems to be insatiable appetite. At whatever hour of day or evening you call on a concierge you are sure to find somebody eating or just risen from table, and the atmosphere inhabited by this bustling personage seems immortally laden with the fumes of something recently boiled.

No matter whether you call on a friend who lives in some unpretentious out of the way place or on one who inhabits something like a palace, the concierge is always about the same. You can detect little difference between those in charge of important doors and of insignificant. They are as like as house flies. Of course there are private houses in Paris, with regular domestic servants such as you would find anywhere, but these, grand or simple, are so unusual that you remember the concierge as everywhere standing between you and further human intercourse.

In response to your card, which the concierge duly sees delivered, comes a card, often with a note, in return. If, as is generally the case, this acknowledgment of your existence contains an intimation of when your French acquaintance may be found at home, either habitual or for your special benefit, you make your second visit at this appointed time and thus enter into real personal relations.

Otherwise, your intercourse has limited itself to a polite exchange of cards. Generally speaking, you never expect or attempt to see French people socially except when they have asked you to one of their regular days of reception or have made a definite appointment. To call on a person at any other time—to do more than leave your card with the concierge—would be an intrusive pretense to intimacy.

NEW DIVISION OF INFORMATION

Circular Letters Sent Out By Division Making Inquiries Regarding Need of Laborers—Bulletin to Be Issued Giving Information.

(Charlotte Observer.)

Washington, September 1.—Judging from the many letters which come to the new division of information of the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization, the function of this institution authorized by the recent act of Congress and established July 1st of this year is not very clearly understood. Many prospectors of various enterprises in different parts of the country evidently under the impression that the division is to dispense general information about governmental affairs, have been writing asking questions.

This division, since it was established July 1st, has sent out circular letters requesting information to the Governors of all the States; to 2,239 postmasters, including the postmasters at every county seat in the United States, the principal offices in Porto Rico, Hawaii and Alaska; to all the employers' associations in the country; to all the labor organizations; to the commissioners of agriculture and of labor; and to the free employment agencies. The information asked for is as to the needs of immigration, particularly what lands are available for settlers, the price, terms, etc.; and what laborers are needed with the scale of wages. Up to this time over two thousand postmasters have replied, practically all who are now expected to reply, but there are fifteen Governors yet to be heard from. Within the next two or three weeks the division will begin issuing bulletins to be printed in various languages and sent out to all requesting information. The particular object of these bulletins will be to inform those immigrants who come to this country where they can get employment or where they can buy land and the terms.

Already many letters are being answered. In addition to those of the character mentioned above, showing a misunderstanding of the functions of the division, Mr. Powderly and Mr. Donahue daily write a large number of letters to people both in this country and abroad who want information about where to settle. To such as these bulletins will be sent when they are ready. Of course, there will be a good many questions asked upon subjects not treated of in the bulletins. Most of those who write from abroad are seeking jobs and they seem to be generally of the opinion that the Bureau of Immigration here is a sort of employment agency. It is not the intention of the bureau of the division of information to send these bulletins out of the country; though, of course, it is naturally expected that a good many will go across the waters. The Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization is forbidden by law to do anything in any way to induce immigration.

But while these officials are not conducting in any sense an employment agency, they naturally develop a sympathy for the many foreigners who write to them after their landing in America, many of them with hard luck stories and nearly all of them, from one cause or another, helpless. The new division of information was scarcely established when it received information through Commissioner General Sargeant, who chanced to be in Boston, of a young Russian-German named Adolph Frohlich and his young wife, who had arrived in Boston with $52 and failed to find their friends. They were such a distressful plight that they naturally enlisted the sympathy of the officials. It so chanced that that very day a letter came from Mr. George C. Nelson, at Lindenville, Vt., who had a large farm of six hundred acres and was in need of just such a couple as Mr. and Mrs. Frohlich. So at least it apepared to the officials at the division of information, and they so notified Mr. Nelson. In a short while the Russian-German couple were happily located in Lindenville on a farm of their own and Mr. Nelson writes that he has places for a number of just such couples.

Although this was not in any way the function of the division of information, it illustrates how, incidentally, this new institution may be of mutual benefit to American employers and land owners on the one hand, and immigrants on the other.

A "NO REVISION" DEAL.

Roosevelt Accused of Agreeing to "Stand Pat" on the Tariff.

(Washington Dispatch to Baltimore Sun.)

If Congress fails to legislate upon the tariff question at the approaching session, the fault will lie with President Roosevelt. The standpatters by themselves are not strong enough to prevent legislation. It is only with his assistance that they can succeed in stifling a sentiment which even the most radical standpatter realizes exists in the country and which is recognized by the proposition to make a promise to do something in the future.

There is a thorough understanding between the administration and the Republican Congressional leaders that nothing is to be done until after the Presidential election. The proposition advanced by Mr. Taft in his Columbus speech on this subject reflects this agreement, and the real purpose of this declaration on the part of the administration at the present time is to give warning to supporters of Roosevelt who happen to represent constituencies favorable to a revision of the tariff that they can make no move in that direction without coming in conflict with the administration plans.

The standpatters, though controlling the Speakership and by assignment the leading committee positions in both Houses of Congress, are decidedly in a minority if the full membership of Congress is considered. The weakness of the situation from a tariff revisionist standpoint is that the element among Republicans favorable to tariff revision is to a very large extent subject to the domination of Mr. Roosevelt, being ready to do his bidding in all things. If he were to take no position at all on the question, there is no room for doubt that enough Republicans would be guided by the sentiment of their sections to secure some sort of revision and readjustment of the tariff schedule.

But political exigencies render desirable for Mr. Roosevelt at least the nominal support of this coterie of stand-pat leaders, whose real enmity he has aroused by his general policy, and tariff revision is to be sacrificed to meet this exigency. Mr. Roosevelt recognizes the necessity, for his own purposes, of making terms with these shrewd and experienced leaders, all of whom are "practical men." There is no love lost between him and them, but he himself is a "practical man," and they can talk across the table with each other without wasting any time on sentiment.

The standpatters are in the minority. Though they are leaders, most of the men whom they lead can be controlled by Roosevelt. There are certain influences which these shrewd leaders control, and which in their sentiments are extremely hostile to Mr. Roosevelt. Mr. Roosevelt has plans paramount in his estimation to the tariff.

The standpatters recognize, but they refuse to confess, that the vital point of attack upon the "bad" corporation interests would be through the tariff. They do not want to be attacked at all; they want to be let alone; but if Mr. Roosevelt's political interests require that attacks shall be made they are willing, if it must be, to endure his general swashbuckler policy if he will agree to help them hold the lid on tariff revision. They will receive his thrusts and bear his scars in consideration of his agreeing not to strike them at a vital point. This being entirely satisfactory to Mr. Roosevelt, the political game has been set up, and with marvelous audacity the administration has already warned the public that they are to be given the promise of possible action in the place of action itself, the asumption being that there is no limit to the ability of Mr. Roosevelt to bunko the public.

The Roosevelt following in Congress is made up of the weak-kneed or inexperienced who follow him, not because they have faith in him or believe in anything that he does, but because they do not feel strong enough to rely upon themselves and believe that there is enough potency among their constituents in being pro-administration to maintain them in their places. They believe that they can go back to their constituents and say that their course was dictated by a purpose to sustain administration policies; that tariff revision had to be sacrificed to these policies, and that they will be forgiven and trusted once more to betray a trust.

HEARST SPEAKS TO WORKINGMEN

Addressed Thousands at Jamestown Exposition as Principal Labor Day Orator.

GOMPERS ALSO MADE SPEECH

Mr. Hearst Declared That Powerful Criminal Should Suffer Jail Penalty—Corporations Should be Treated Justly.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 2.—William Randolph Hearst, of New York, and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, were the principal speakers at today's great Labor Day celebration at the Jamestown Exposition. The weather was clear and thousands of persons from all parts of tidewater Virginia attended. The exercises took place at the reviewing stand on the parade ground.

Following an address of welcome by President Tucker of the Exposition Company, Mr. Hearst was introduced and was given an ovation. Mr. Hearst said, in part:

"Labor Day should rank with the Fourth of July as a characteristic American holiday. In this country the mechanics work, the farmers work, the clerks work and even the millionaires work. We have no aristocracy save that of intellect and industry, and the proudest title of our most successful millionaire is 'Captain of Industry.' Both employer and employed are entitled to their share of the profits and as long as the division is just and equable there is no occasion for conflict. If the division is not just, it can always be made so by arbitration, and there is still no occasion for conflict. A condition of class hatred as has developed in Colorado is a curse to this country. The man who digs the precious metal from the earth is worth his wage. The man who tells him where to find his gold deserves his profit, too. The great financial promoters, organizers, executives of America, are worthy of recognition and reward. They work as hard as any of us, and their work is absolutely necessary to the full production of the riches out of which are paid here in America the highest wages in the world. Let them have a liberal share of that wealth as long as that is the incentive which stimulatest them to useful activities. Let them have wealth as long as it is honestly acquired through enterprises that benefit the whole community. And now, my friends, in the creation of wealth and in the equable distribution of wealth not only is co-operation necessary, but organization is necessary. Labor unions are valuable, not only to their own members, but to the whole community. And honest, law abiding organizations of capital are valuable, not only to their own stockholders, but to the whole community. The effectiveness of combinations of capital is seen in their enormous power for good, and their menace lies in the misuse of that enormous power for evil. You hear much today of how a mayor of San Francisco has fallen, but you hear little of how powerful public service corporations tempted a wretched human being with great wealth and brought a once respected man to ruin and disgrace.

"While it is the fashion to criticise San Francisco just now, I venture to assert that the only difference between San Francisco and some other cities is that San Francisco is punishing her corruptionists. Let us recognize and reward the good which honest corporations accomplish, but let us, with equal justice, condemn and punish the evil which corrupt corporations spread. Let us govern our corporations as we do our individual citizens. Let us make laws impartially for all and then make all impartially obedient to the laws. Let us give every opportunity to legitimate enterprise, but let us enforce the prison penalty against powerful criminals as we do against the weak and helpless.

BRIDGE WAS BLOWN UP.

New Structure on B. & O. Railroad Wrecked by Dynamite.

Philadelphia, September 2.—A new bridge on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad over Corry street, Darby, a suburb, was blown up about 1 o'clock this morning by unknown persons. The false work of the bridge was completely wrecked by dynamite. A southbound freight train was approaching at the time and was flagged by two policemen. The bridge is being built by the Youngstown Construction Company, of Youngstown, O. The police officials believe the explotion was the work of enemies of the company. A northbound express, due in this city about 3 o'clock from Baltimore and Washington, would have reached the point where the explosion occurred in about an hour.

SEVEN KILLED, 17 INJURED

Train on Chesapeake and Ohio Wrecked by Spreading Rails.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Charleston, W. Va., September 2.—Chesapeake and Ohio local passenger train No. 6, was derailed a mile below Kanawha Falls tonight and as a result seven are dead and seventeen injured. A coach, the combination express and mail car and the baggage car overturned, rolling towards the Kanawha river. Among the dead are Allen Loving, a Hinton law student at West Virginia University, serving as express agent during the Summer; C. S. Campbell, a telegraph operator. Spreading of rails is supposed to have caused the accident.

RUSSIAN CZAR BRAVES' BOMBS

Second Entry Into St. Petersberg Since That Awful Red Sunday,

GUARDED BY THOUSANDS

Emperor Attended Dedication of Memorial Church Erected on Spot Where His Grandfather, Alexander II, Was Assassinated.

Petersburg, Sept. 2.—For the second time since "Red Sunday," January 22nd, 1905, Emperor Nicholas today entered the Capital to attend the consecration of a church to the memory of his grandfather, Alexander II, who was assassinated on the spot where the edifice was raised. The date of the trip, co-inciding with the conspiracy trial just closed here, plainly was designed to raise the loyalty of the army and the people. It was a complete success and no untoward incident occurred.

The police neglected no precaution to insure the safety of the Emperor and even went so far as to thoroughly search the city and inspect the passports of suspicious individuals. Gendarmes were stationed in every window facing the route over which the imperial procession passed and owners of houses were forbidden to open windows under pain of a heavy fine. Bridge and river traffic was entirely suspended, the banks of the Neva were lined with marine guards and torpedo boats patrolled the river.

The imperial party arrived from Peterhof unannounced, not a single salute being fired during their whole stay. The Emperor and his party disembarked from a yacht at the admiralty and entered an inconspicuous launch, landing at the Grand Duke Constantine's palace. Thence they proceeded the remainder of the way to the memorial church in carriages.

Though the church faces the Nevsky prospect, it is conveniently reached from the Neva across the Marsfield drill ground, where a new road, flanked by rows of flags, had been made for their majesties.

After two months of daily rains the sky cleared and the sun shone the brilliant scene of nearly a hundred detachments of troops with varying uniforms stationed along the line of march. The Emperor's arrival was announced by cheers from the troops, the public looking on indifferently. The big church yard, where the imperial party arrived at the hour set for the function, was picturesquely bordered by platoons of cuirassiers, grenadiers and dragoons in multi-colored uniforms, waving plumes, busbees and silver breat plates.

After walking around the church and saluting the guard, the Emperor entered the edifice at the south door. The scene inside was one of great splendor, recalling the old-time court balls. An abundance of light, streaming through the lofty windows, illuminated the four immense mosaic columns around which were grouped 2,000 representatives of the ruling classes. The Emperor and the Empress occupied the so-called patriarchs' place at the right of the altar, where they were visible only from the diplomatic corner. A score of grand dukes and grand duchesses encircled the imperial party, and further back were couriers, court dames and a preponderant majority of army officers.

Premier Stolypin was the only minister to attend the ceremonies, all of the others being abroad. Mr. Riddle, the American ambassador, and Sir Arthur Nicholson, the British ambassador, and the civic element were conspicuously absent, though millions of rubles were subscribed to the church fund by peasants and others who were not invited. Three walls of the church were lined with a double file of palace grenadiers and the entrances were guarded by veterans of the Russo-Turkish war.

The Emperor seemed to be in excellent spirits, but the Empress had the same careworn, sad look which has often been remarked. The Emperor wore a simple uniform, with a dark blue tunic and trousers. Across his shoulders was the blue sash of St. Andrew. The Empress was gowned in white silk and wore a white ostrich feather hat and a string of diamonds. She also wore the sash of St. Andrew. Both their majesties remained standing throughout the entire ceremony, which lasted three and a quarter hours, the Empress slightly leaning on her parasol.

RODE WITH GENERAL SHERIDAN

Monroe Graham, Who Was a Courier Dispatch Bearer in the Civil War,

Chester, Pa., September 1.—Monroe Graham, who was a dispatch bearer and courier in the civil war and rode with General Sheridan during his famous ride of 20 miles from Winchester, died last night at his home in Village Green. Mr. Graham frequently gave at grand army gatherings a version of the part he played when he acted in the capacity of dispatch bearer. The troops, he said, were stationed 20 miles from Winchester, at which place Sheridan was in conference with other army officers as to future plans. An attack occurred and Sheridan was needed at the front. Graham volunteered to ride to Sheridan and return with him while the battle was in progress. Graham started on his ride to notify Sheridan and before he reached him the cannonading could be heard.

"Quick!" shouted Graham, as he handed the dispatch to General Sheridan, who was taken by surprise at the sudden appearance of the courier. Notwithstanding the fact that an important consultation was being held, Sheridan immediately mounted his famous black horse and accompanied by Graham proceeded on his ride. Greham was at the side of General Sheridan until the troops were reached.

LABOR UNIONS HAVE BIG DAY

Great Parade in San Francisco Resullts in Attack on Cars.

TWO LABOR MEN WERE SHOT

Celebrations All Over Country—White Unions of Charleston Picniked and Colored Unions Paraded—Features of Day Elsewhere.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

San Francisco, Sept. 2.—The labor union parade today resulted in the shooting of two men by employes of the United Railroads. The car men were attacked by the paraders and in self defense, opened fire. The trouble started at Ferry, where it is stated a Sutter street car broke through the line of parade. A mob of labor union men followed the car and at the junction of Sutter street the members there attacked the car. The motorman seeing that his life was in danger, opened fire and wounded one of his assailants in the leg. A block further up an inspector was attacked by the mob. He drew a pistol and wounded a labor union man. The men who did the shooting were arrested. The labor union men who were in the parade evidently thought that they had the right of way over the streets of San Francisco for when the cars of the United Railroads attempted to break through the procession there was trouble. What had been an orderly parade, turned into a riot. When the police jumped in to quell the riot, a number of them as soon as they made arrests were set upon by the labor union paraders and mobbed. One policeman said afterward:

"It took twenty officers to make a single arrest."

Advice to Union Labor.

Charleston, S. C., Sept. 2.—Labor Day was observed in Charleston by a general suspension of business, a parade by the colored unions and a picnic by the white unions under the auspices of the Trades and Labor Federation. The parade was creditable and was viewed by a crowd on the streets. The picnic at the Scheutszen Platz was largely attended. Mayor Rhett made an address in which he told the unions of some complaints heard and urged them to keep the organizations what they were claimed to be and make them the allies and not enemies of capital and industry.

Monster Parade at Roanoke.

Roanoke, Va., September 2.—Organized labor fittingly celebrated labor day here today. There was a monster parade in which all the unions were well represented. There were more marchers in line than an any previous occasion.

MANSFIELD LAID IN TOMB.

Services Were Simple and Idle Were Asked to Stay Away.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New London, Conn., Sept. 2.—All that was mortal of Richard Mansfield was lowered into a grave in the little Gardner Cemetery, within a few rods of Seven Oaks, his Summer home, at noon today. The ceremony was simple, but impressive, and was attended by many friends and acquaintances of the late actor. By request of the family, the services at the house were simple. There was no eulogy or address.

Rev. Alfred Poole Grint, Ph. D., rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, officiated. The choir of St. James sang "Lead, Kindly Light." It had been announced that those who knew Mr. Mansfield in life were welcome to attend, but those who had nothing but curiosity to call them to the services were not desired.
